Message from the President

By Glen Dickard

Darn, they are right, the older I get the faster the time goes. Boy did the past month fly by. It seems that the Greater Los Angeles Chapter members were just here but, no, they have come and gone. So has their rodeo. I need to stop and give great thanks to the Los Angeles members for one fine rodeo. For those that did not make it, you missed out on a good time. Good jobs by everyone.

Ok enough about them... this is my space for us. Although August is the quietest time here in the desert, many things are moving forward for the chapter. We have planned two fun events for chapter members. Our first one will be a trail ride for the chapter members. We have contacted a place in the high desert to take us out for a two-hour ride. The stable will also allow us to trailer in so that members with horses can join us.

Then, once again we will be heading down to San Diego by bus to join them for Diamond Spurs. The bus will be departing the Palm Springs area then stop in the Inland Empire area to pick up members. Drinks will be served on the bus. We look forward to both events.

The Art Auction is moving forward. Several pieces have been donated with more on the way. We are looking to have a great event. Steve Wollert from San Diego will be our auctioneer for the event. Watch for ticket information in the mail.

The Palm Springs Chapter finally has a website up. It's still in the preliminary stages, but the web address is:

www.PalmSpringsRodeo.org

The site is being built by chapter member Mike Eytcheson and will take several weeks to have more information up. Like all websites it will be an ongoing project, managed by myself, Mike Eytcheson and Keith Wiley.

This new site will have chapter, rodeo, GSGRA and IGRA information as well as links to other chapters including GSGRA and IGRA.

If you see something that is incorrect or if we have missed something, please let me know.

Horsh-U

The sight of blood may unnerve you, but maintaining your presence of mind can save your horse's life.

The following suggestions should be viewed as guidelines.

1. Catch and calm your horse to prevent further injury. Move the horse to a stall or other familiar surroundings, if this is possible, without causing distress or further injury to the horse. Providing hay or grain can also be a good distraction.
2. Get help before attempting to treat or evaluate a wound. It can be difficult and very dangerous to try to inspect or clean a wound without someone to hold the horse. You cannot help your horse if you are seriously injured yourself.
3. Evaluate the location, depth, and severity of the wound. Call your veterinarian for a recommendation anytime you feel your horse is in need of emergency care. Here are some examples of situations where your Vet should be called:

- A. There appears to be excessive bleeding
  - B. The entire skin thickness has been penetrated.
  - C. The wound occurs near or over a joint.
  - D. Any structures underlying the skin are visible.
  - E. A severe wound has occurred in the lower leg or below knee or hock level.
  - G. The wound is severely contaminated
4. Consult with your veterinarian regarding a recommendation before you attempt to clean the wound or remove debris or penetrating objects, as you may precipitate uncontrollable bleeding or do further damage to the wound. Large objects should be stabilized to avoid damaging movement if possible. Don't put anything on the wound except a compress or cold water.

5. Stop the bleeding (this may be the FIRST step, if the bleeding is profuse!) by covering the wound with a sterile, absorbent pad (not cotton), applying firm, steady, even pressure to the wound.

6. Do not medicate or tranquilize the horse unless specifically directed by your veterinarian. If the horse has suffered severe blood loss or shock, the administration of certain drugs can be life threatening.

7. If the eye is injured, do not attempt to treat. Wait your veterinarian.

8. If a horse steps on a nail or other sharp object, and it remains embedded in the hoof, first clean the hoof. Consult with your veterinarian regarding recommendations before you remove the nail. If your veterinarian advises, carefully remove the nail to prevent the horse from stepping on it and driving it deeper into the hoof cavity. As you remove it, be sure to mark the exact point and depth of entry with tape and/or a marker so the veterinarian can access the extent of the damage. Apply antiseptic to the wound, and wrap to prevent additional contamination.

9. All horses being treated for lacerations or puncture wounds will require a tetanus booster.

Other Emergencies: There are far too many types of emergencies - from heat stroke to hyperkalemic periodic paralysis, bone fractures to snake bites, foaling difficulties, to colic - to adequately cover them all. However, regardless of the situation, it's important to remember these points:

1. Keep the horse as calm as possible. Your own-calm behavior will help achieve this.

2. Move the animal to a safe area where it is unlikely to be injured should it go down.

3. Get someone to help you, and delegate responsibilities, such as calling the veterinarian, retrieving the first aid kit, holding the horse, etc.

4. Notify your veterinarian immediately. Be prepared to provide specific information about the horse's condition, as mentioned above, and other data that will help your practitioner assess the immediacy of the danger and instruct you in how to proceed.

5. Listen closely and follow your equine practitioner's instructions.

6. Do not administer drugs, especially tranquilizers or sedatives, unless specifically instructed to do so by the veterinarian.

(Information was taken from a brochure called Emergency Care developed by the American Association of Equine Practitioner's through a grant from Bayer Corporation.)

GREATER LOS ANGELES CHAPTER

GLAC You Are Wonderful

What an Accomplishment! The mission of the rodeo this year was for everyone to have fun and make money. At this point all I can let you know is that we did not lose money. I have only heard good things about the rodeo from the people that attended. Everyone I talked with at the rodeo said they were having fun. I'm sure that everything is not as perfect as that, but I think we accomplished our goals. I am very happy to say how wonderful it was to get the rest of the GLBT community involved in this year's rodeo. I was very glad to have on board this year the Long Beach Pride, the LA Pride, the LA and Palm Springs Bears, the Sister of Perpetual Indulgence, who also raised money for their charity, the Knights Softball Team, to help assist them in getting to nationals, LA Leather coalition, The Mustang Mavericks and the Cowgirl Way who do charity work, the deaf community, the bootblack, all of our entertainment from all over, the Bay Area Chapter, the Palm Springs Chapter and the San Diego Chapter.

Congratulations to everyone who made the LA Rodeo a success this year. We could not have done it without each and everyone one of you. I would like to send a special Thank You out to all of our members who made a contribution in any way they could to assist in putting on a great rodeo. Each one of our member contribute in their own way and I want you all to know how much I appreciate everything that you did. Sometimes we get so involved in thanking all the volunteers and forget that without our membership we could not have a rodeo. Together Everyone Achieves More and I want to say that the GLAC Rodeo Team is awesome and you all deserve a great big pat on the back and Thank You. This is a wonderful organization and I am very proud to say that I am a part of the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the Golden State Gay Rodeo Association.

Any chapter member in good standing for a year or more can be nominated, or nominate themselves, for any of the five board seats: President; Executive Vice President; Vice President of Rodeo Operations; Treasurer; or Secretary. These nominations will be posted 30 days prior to the October meeting. Email us now at nominations@larodeo.com and make a difference!

Reminder

Rodeo Wrap Up meeting will be September 2, 2006 at 2 pm at Greg Brown's House. We will be having a BBQ and expecting to have a good time while we have our discussions.

Please bring to this meeting what you think worked and didn't work. If you talk about something that didn't work, please come with a solution on how we could do it better or what to replace it with. Remember that list I ask all of you to keep during the year on what works and what doesn't? This is the time to use that list. Also, start working on your job description on what you have changed this year, what worked for you and what did not or what was missing from the job description.

We will also be working on the timeline; on what we need to move up or back depending on how things went this year.

Everyone is invited to attend if you have input. If you cannot attend and have comments, send them to me by 8/31/06 to rodeovp@larodeo.com.

Message from the President of the Greater San Diego Chapter

Robert Kingham

Well things here have been moving along well. We had a great time at San Diego Pride to which I would like to thank all those members from the Palm Springs Chapter for helping. From what I have heard that the Rodeo contingent looked great. The festival and the country dance tent was a huge success. Thank you to our Chapter Royalty Anthony and Tracey for all you hard work and long hours at the festival. After Pride many of our members went to LA for the LA rodeo and our great Royalty team helped out the LA Chapter with their entertainment. This along with their first time competing in some of the events. I understand they did quite well.

The following weekend was the First Anniversary for the Asylum of the Tortured Hearts Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence of San Diego. Members of our Chapter were there for the weekends events including the Black Veiling. The Sister were very happy to see the Rodeo Association in attendance. They were very excited that they have such a strong support from the rodeo community. The Sisters have offered the Rodeo any help and support that the can provide. I see this as a great beginning.

We are working on some great fundraisers and some membership drives for the rest of this year and into next. I'll keep you updated on our up coming events.

We are progressing on schedule with the planning for the 2007 Coors Light San Diego Rodeo. So stay tuned for further updates from our VP Rodeo.

I want to send out a Happy Birthday to the following members of the San Diego Chapter:
