From your President

Show your NGRA Pride — Please Consider Wearing a Cowboy Hat

At our most recent show, at Charlie's, one of our members, David Wright, made a pretty good observation. For all the NGRA Members in attendance, only one or two were wearing cowboy hats. I'm the President of this rodeo organization and I wasn't even wearing a cowboy hat. So, I'm asking that from now on, whenever you attend an NGRA Event (or if you attend another organization's event, representing NGRA) please consider wearing a cowboy hat. It doesn't need to be expensive; it just needs to be a cowboy hat and you can buy them all over town. Boot Barn has a nice selection but so do gift shops throughout the valley. I'm not asking you to change your personal style, or to "cowboy it up." I'll probably be wearing shorts, a T-Shirt, sneakers - and now a cowboy hat. The way I see it, wearing a cowboy hat will accomplish two things. First of all, it will show the memberships' pride in NGRA and it will also allow the bar owners and managers to see just exactly how many of us are in attendance. If we want their continued support - and we do - it can't hurt for them to look out at the crowd and get a quick idea of how many NGRA members are in attendance, just by seeing the cowboy hats. So, in short, when you come out to NGRA Events, or when you attend other events, as a member of NGRA, please consider putting on a cowboy hat just to let people know that NGRA is in the house!

NGRA Annual Convention 2016

If any NGRA Member has been considering a change to the NGRA Bylaws or Standing Rules, this is the time of year to let your idea be heard. The NGRA Annual Convention is the only time of the year that the Bylaws can be modified, and it is also an opportune time to consider changes to the Standing Rules. The convention is scheduled for March 12th.

I invite you to submit your proposals to me as soon as possible, so that all proposed changes can be compiled and sent out to all members to review prior to the convention date.

When preparing any recommended changes, please copy the existing section of the Bylaw or Standing Rule. Then UNDERLINE any proposed deletion, and BOLD any proposed addition. By doing this it makes it easier for everyone to quickly understand what you are trying to achieve with your proposal.

If you need help in writing up your proposal, please send me your idea and I will work with you to get your idea into the proper wording and format. The sooner the better, as it takes some time to properly write any proposed changes. Send to Roger via email at canyontrvl@aol.com.

The current NGRA Bylaws and Standing Rules are available on the NGRA website: www.ngra.com.

Convention Date: March 12th, 2016

Time: 10:00 am until completion

Location: Gay & Lesbian Community Center, 401 South Maryland Parkway, Las Vegas, NV 89101

Thank you!

Roger Bergmann
Convention Committee Chair

Open Position at NGRA: Public Relations Spokesperson

NGRA is looking for a Public Relations Spokesperson. People interested in promoting NGRA, our events, and our people to the public should contact Ken Hruby at president@ngra.com.

Rôle of the Public Relations Spokesperson

The Public Relations Spokesperson shall:

- A. be responsible for arranging publicity for the Corporation's events, through the creation and timely issuance of news releases and through other activities;
- B. be responsible for the external dissemination of information, whether written or verbal, as directed by the needs of the Corporation, and
- C. keep complete and accurate lists of appropriate media for news releases, along with a complete and accurate list of the other IGRA associations.

From your Vice President

February has started with a bang! The Arizona Gay Rodeo Association held the 31st Annual Road Runner Regional Rodeo on February 12th – 14th at the Corona Ranch in Laveen, AZ. NGRA was well represented at the rodeo with Traci Fox, Courtney Cole, Stephanie Malone, Stacey Barnett, Richard Armstrong and I all competing. Traci and her super wild drag team had a great showing just coming up a little short in the event on both days. I can personally say those steers were not friendly! Richard and I had a crazy steer in the steer decorating event both days and received a no time. Sometimes it's just the luck of the draw. In the speed events, NGRA made its presence known. In Pole Bending, Courtney and Pippin sped their way to a 2nd place finish on Saturday and a 1st place finish on Sunday, winning the Pole Bending Buckle for the weekend! Great job Courtney! In the men's division, Richard and Olive placed 7th and 6th good enough to take 2nd in the average. Barrel racing was the next event and our ladies kept the pressure on. While Saturday saw the NGRA ladies just off the leader board, Sunday was a different story. Stephanie Malone and Lena ran the fastest time of the entire rodeo with a 14.41 winning 1st place Sunday with Courtney winning 4th and Stacey rounding out the leader board with an 8th place finish. In the men's division, Richard and Olive placed 6th on Saturday, but a tipped barrel on Sunday took them out of the average. The men of NGRA represented in the Flag race. On Saturday, Richard and Diamond missed the bucket to win the go round. Diamond and I stuck on Saturday but was just off the leader board with a 9th place finish. The next day was a different story. While Diamond and I were still off the leader board, we did stick and placed 6th in the average, while Richard and Diamond took the top spot with an 8.08, the fastest run of the entire rodeo! Not bad for a 19-year-old horse!

Thank you to all who came out to support and cheer for the contestants. We do truly appreciate you in the stands cheering us on!

Phab Phifties Phoenix Bar & Lounge Saturday, February 13th

We held our first event at the Phoenix Bar and Lounge on February 13th. This new venue on West Sahara Avenue gave us a very warm welcome.

Vivianne Dumonde hosted and opened the show with “I Love You Baltimore” from Hairspray.

The show contained a mixture of live and sync singing with Vivianne being joined by Jason White in a live rendition of “Suddenly Seymour” from the Little Shop of Horrors. They were joined on the stage by Araya Sunshine and Alisha Jacobson. And how else could it all end but with Kitty Litter being her own inimitable self.

Jason White

Araya Sunshine

With Miss Kitty selling game of chance cards with Buzz Green as her assistant, Carolyn on the beer bust and Ken and David Wells minding the prize table we were well pleased with our first visit.

Those members who had not visited the bar before, including a former Miss Cow Patty visiting all the way from Utah, expressed their liking for the venue. Their only complaint was that they had not realized a wide range of in-house food was on offer and they had eaten before they came out.

Once again thanks to all who entertained and helped out and to Landen for opening his bar to us.

David sets out the prize table with a great selection to be won during the night.

We almost made Vivianne's night with this prize but she really wanted the gay Peace Bear. Luckily her husband Matthew (Miss Cow Patty 2015) manages to win it for her.

Well there's a happy lady. Love the smiles we bring to people's faces

Something to wet Jason's whistle after all that singing.

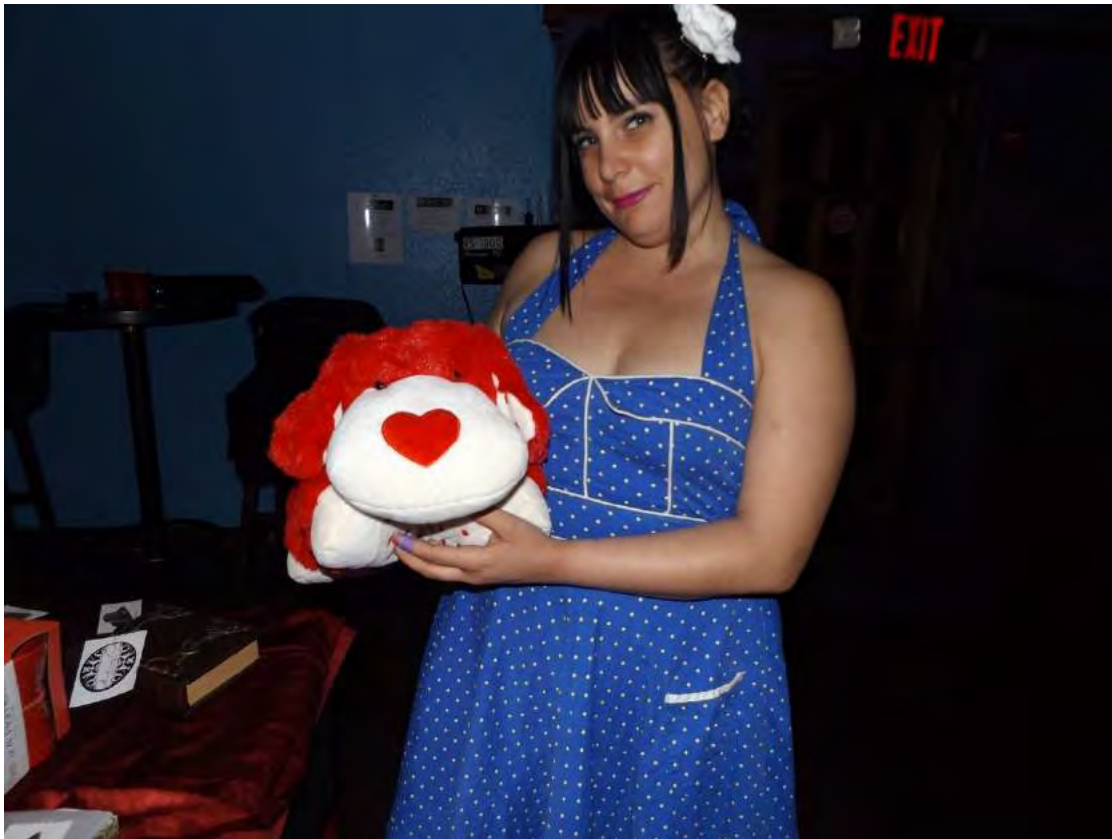

Looks like they're set for a happy evening when they get home.

Thanks to Miss Kitty for selling the cards and to Ken for doing the important work of taking the money and handing out the consolation prizes of snacks.

This lady really fell for this Valentines Bear. She was seen stroking it all around the bar for the rest of the night.

A final shot at the end of the evening.

February Fairytales Charlie's Saturday, February 20th

On Saturday the 20th NGRA returned to Charlie's to explore the Fairy in us all. Once again the evening swung to country music.

We were entertained by Ms NGRA Traci Foxx still nursing a gammy knee from her turn at Wild Drag at the Arizona rodeo, Charli who sang two numbers including her signature number "Redneck Woman" as well as by Kitty Litter, Troy and Brian.

Miss Kitty and Buzz sold chance cards, David Wright manned the prize table, Brian and Chad passed around selling shots and Carolyn [wo]manned the beer bust.

A regular member of our fundraising team, David Wright really getting down to it.

Our redneck woman was at her best.

And a new entertainer to our events was Troy who put on a great performance.

That well know bear Brian had his hand out as usual and thanks to the people that filled it.

Miss NGRA Traci Foxx swung into action even on a dicky knee from wild drag at Phoenix.

Ken, our President, picked a lucky card and made off with a bottle of vodka.

We do get big smiles from our prize winners, don't we?

Now this guy looks stunned at his good luck snagging a bottle of rum.

AFAN Las Vegas AIDS Walk

The AFAN Las Vegas AIDS Walk is Sunday, April 17th.

This year, there will be an NGRA Team and we'd love to have as many NGRA Members, and guests, walking with our Team as possible. To register, please visit AFAN's Registration Page: <http://afanlv.donordrive.com/> Click on "Register Now." Then click on "I am walking with a team" and "Join a team." Click on "Search," type "NGRA" then click on the "NGRA" that appears and then continue the registration process. Trust me, it's much easier than it sounds here, with me typing it out. When you walk, please consider wearing a cowboy hat to show your NGRA Pride and to show AFAN that we're there to support them. If you have any questions, or need help, please email me at President@ngra.com.

Thanks,

Ken Hruby

Fundraising

NGRA Fundraising Director

On behalf of the NGRA Board of Directors, I am extremely happy to announce that the new Fundraising Director for NGRA is Marcus Grissom. If Marcus' name doesn't sound familiar to you, perhaps you know his alter ego "Kitty Litter." Marcus has a long relationship with NGRA and a lot of experience in the fundraising arena. We are extremely happy to welcome him to the Board of Directors and especially in such a crucial role. I'd also like to take this time to thank Carolyn Jones for all of her hard work as our outgoing Fundraising Coordinator. Over the last year and a half, Carolyn has done an amazing job in that role. I'm happy to say that we aren't losing Carolyn. She'll still be a member of the Board of Directors and is still the NGRA Volunteer Coordinator.

Marcus, welcome to the Board of Directors and Carolyn, thank you for all you've done for NGRA fundraising.

Ken Hruby
NGRA President
president@ngra.com

By now many of you will know I have stepped down as Chairman of the Fundraising Committee. I have held the post since November 2014. When I took over fundraising was at a low ebb with little leadership for many months before that. I was both flattered and a bit scared when the then President Doug Graff asked me to take this on and the rest of the Board agreed. But I knew it was an important job which needed doing and I was the only one willing to take it on at that time.

In the months since then I have learned a lot and have reason to be grateful to many people for the help and encouragement they have given me. To the bar managers who have supported us, to all the entertainers who have performed for us and to the amazing team of people who have formed the Fundraising Committee. The money raised by their efforts has kept NGRA going through 2015 and into 2016.

I became aware of Marcus' interest in actively helping NGRA a few months ago and I was delighted when he agreed to meet me to discuss the possibility of his taking over as Fundraising Chair. I was even more pleased when he applied to the Board in January and was voted into position as Fundraising Director at the last Board meeting.

I believe that Marcus will do a fine job and lead NGRA from financial strength to strength allowing us to both have fun and make money for our rodeo and for our community.

So once again thank you all for your support and I am sure you will carry that forward and support Marcus and the events he organizes for us.

Finally, you might like to know (or then again you might not) that I remain on the Board and as Volunteer Coordinator and plan to work just as hard to help NGRA in other ways.

Carolyn Jones
